EMPLOYMENT READINESS: MCC EXPERIENCE

The Arc
Monroe
New York

Quick Facts:

- Participate in progressively more independent vocational experiences
- Access to MCC campus and open events, where they can meet more friends.
- Involvement in college clubs & organizations
- Internship opportunities at both the MCC Downtown and Henrietta campus
- Audit one course per semester.

The Arc of Monroe offers several Employment Readiness Services that provide various hands-on educational opportunities to prepare people with I/DD for meaningful community employment.

Monroe Community College (MCC) Experience is a higher education transitional service for adults with I/DD.

We provide them with opportunities to continue their education and development in a college setting. The overall goal is helping each individual with their vocational aspirations by building on experiential learning and vocational experiences/job internships.
