New York

Quick Facts:

- Eligible for adult services through OPWDD

The Arc of Monroe offers several SEMP Services that provide various hands-on educational opportunities to prepare people with IDD for competitive/community employment.

Employment Training Program (ETP) is a discovery process leading to a potential internship opportunity. Internships can create a path to permanent employment in a community business. People are paid while they learn job skills and attend job readiness classes.

What the Program Offers:

- Paid internship for up to 12 months to learn on-the-job skills
- Paid job readiness classes on time management, conflict resolution, dressing to impress, dependability, and other employability skills
- Discovery activities to identify skills, abilities and interests
- Industry-specific job development training on employment standards, work culture, and technology

Goal:

Obtain permanent employment at the end of the internship
