EMPLOYMENT READINESS SERVICES

The Arc
Monroe
New York

Arc Employment Services:

The Arc of Monroe offers several Employment Readiness Services that provide various hands-on educational people with IDD for competitive employment.

Community-Based Workplace Assessment

A service designed to help a person determine level of supports needed for competitive employment.

- Takes place in a community employment setting
- A one-to-two week assessment up to four hours a day
- Work directly with a one-on-one job coach

Goal:
Receive a recommendation for futrue vocational opportunities

Community Work Experience

A service to help people develop on-the-job skills in an entry level position.

- Minimum wage paid internship experience at a local community business
- Included development of internship sites in an entry level position with job coaching support
- Generally lasts two months, part-time participation

Goal:
Give people employment experience

Work Readiness

A training service designed to help participants learn “soft” workplace skills.

- Minimum wage paid internship experience at a local community business

Goal:
Learn acceptable workplace conduct, practice interviews, and job development concepts

To learn more about these services, contact Job Path at (585) 256-7330, ext. 2510